

Appendix 9

Q20 – Length of wait for a routine GP appointment if ‘several days’

Up to 2 weeks to see your own doctor though emergency 5 min appointments usually available
1 - 5 days
Varies
can be a day to weeks depending on need 3 or 4. If urgent you just have to go and wait.
anything from 2/3 days to a week
For a non urgent appointment I would expect to schedule it within 7 days. That said, if we have an urgent need and call in the morning we can always see a doctor that day (sit and wait basis).

the question isn't phrased that well. Do you mean how long do I wait or how long I would reasonably expect to wait? I answered the former. It's usually around one to two weeks for a non-urgent appoint
