Section B: Gifts and Hospitality

8) Any person from whom I have received a gift or hospitality (during my term of office as a parish councillor) with an estimated value of at least £25:-

NIL

NB: Your attention is drawn to your parish council's Code of Conduct for parish councillors, which may make provision in respect of the acceptance of gifts and hospitality. Generally, as a councillor, you should avoid accepting any gift, hospitality or other favour which could give the impression of compromising your integrity, honesty or objectivity. In particular, you

- (1) should avoid any behaviour which might reasonably be seen as motivated by personal gain;
- (2) should exercise caution in accepting any gifts or hospitality which are (or which you might reasonably believe to be) offered to you because you are a parish councillor;
- (3) should never accept significant gifts or hospitality (i.e. anything with a value of £25 or more) from suppliers or contractors seeking to acquire or develop business with your parish council; and
- (4) may be required to report or acceptance, to notify the Monitoring Officer or (of a value of £25 or more) for your interests.
