

BULLETIN

ROUNDABOUT EFFINGHAM aims to provide an independent platform to facilitate communication between residents of Effingham and the businesses, persons, and organisations active within Effingham and its Neighbourhood (such as shops, charities, churches, schools, clubs and associations) and help them to get to know more about and engage with each other to their mutual benefit.

Because of the devastating fire behind the Village Supermarket and Bevan's Butchers shop in Effingham, currently neither shop can trade. It is the intention of both shops to trade again as soon as possible.

In the meantime, a group of volunteers, under the auspices of Effingham with Little Bookham Parish, suggested opening a Temporary Community Store. That suggestion has come to fruition and we are delighted to announce that the Store will be open from 10am on Tuesday 19th May. This would not have been possible without the free usage of Layla's Cafe, and the very generous grants from Effingham Parish Council, Guildford Borough Council, Bookham Residents Association and the sponsorship of Bookers Cash and Carry.

The store will be run by local volunteers and will be open 10am - 2pm, Monday - Saturday; until the Village Supermarket is able to start trading again. Any profits will be donated to the Effingham Parish Council's Community Fund.

We are very happy to welcome you back to browse at Cedar Nursery again from Wednesday 13th May. Please note that we have safe social distancing precautions in place. Please pay attention to signage at the Nursery, and, as we may be busier than usual please have patience with our team and be prepared for a possible queue for sales and service. We are also continuing our local ordering and delivery service within Surrey. Thank you for your support and we look forward to seeing you again!

Organiser Paul Barker from Fetcham quickly confirmed "I can confirm we do cover Effingham absolutely particularly since the shop fire." when the following was posted on Facebook.

For those new to this page and a reminder to those who are already members, our community support group, Community Coronavirus Care is here to support you. We currently have 30 call handlers on our freephone number 0800 3077 111 and a huge team of 217 DBS certificated volunteers ready to do shopping, collect prescriptions, walk dogs, and carry out minor 'handyman' jobs etc. Our service is completely free and we are proud to say we are now receiving referrals from Mole Valley. Anyone in need can get in touch and we are determined that no one in our community will be left without support. We currently support Fetcham, Bookham, Leatherhead, Ashted alongside areas within Epsom, Ewell, Cobham and surrounding areas.
